

PRESS RELEASE | APRIL 13, 2018

ODEON PROPERTIES continues to bring culture to ODEON theatre through international music artists DEAD COMBO.

DEAD COMBO chose ODEON theatre as the location for the cover of their new album (as shown below). The band was so inspired by the theatre they also incorporated "ODEON" in the title of their new album, ODEON HOTEL, which launched today.

ODEON PROPERTIES is honored that this was the last artistic production done at the theatre before construction starts next month.

In 2020, ODEON will reopen its doors and the building will once again shine with a grand restaurant and 10 apartments. The restaurant will maintain the original 24-meter column and pediment in order to keep the heart and soul of the theatre.

For more information please visit www.odeonproperties.com

